

ADULT EDUCATION

The nature of Adult Education is informal rather than academic, therefore it is necessary to adhere to the ideals of voluntary use and informal methods. It is also necessary to conduct programs which will meet the specific needs of the community.

Included in the services that have proven effective in the Adult Education program, are the American Heritage Discussion groups, film forums, lectures, panel discussions, recorded concerts and book talks. The American Heritage Discussion groups, which have been sponsored by the library for several years, are considered among the most successful projects. Topics in which all participants found an interest were discussed and the program served as a type of melting pot of ideas on various subjects for improving the adult citizens of the community.

The materials available to the adults that help to stimulate and shape the desire to learn include exhibits, book
